

New York Stock Market

New York, December 15.—The most salient feature of today's market for securities was the greater breadth and better demand for bonds. Sales of these issues were the largest in the recent history of the stock exchange and a correspondingly improved tone was reported in direct sales by bondmen.

This movement confirms the increasing belief that the year-end disbursements of interest and dividends are being anticipated by many investors. There is a disposition to attribute the improvement to yesterday's decision by the Georgia court favoring the income bondholders of the Central of Georgia Railroad. The issues of this road were again very active and strong today, but the movement as a whole was fairly uniform and unimpaired.

In many quarters where that feeling had recently been lacking, further improvement was shown in stocks during the early part of the session, but later in the day almost all of the early gains were wiped out.

Overnight developments were of an adverse or negative character. The decline in many quarters where that feeling had recently been lacking, further improvement was shown in stocks during the early part of the session, but later in the day almost all of the early gains were wiped out.

New York, December 15.—Money on call steady, 3-1/2 to 4-1/2 per cent; prime mercantile paper, 5 to 5-1/2 per cent. Sterling, 105 to 105-1/2. Gold, 105 to 105-1/2. Silver, 105 to 105-1/2.
